No Change In Rations Now

Govt. Bans Use Of Milk Or Cream For Ice-Cream

BOMBAY, Friday.

How to prepare icecream without either milk or cream?—This problem will soon tax the ingenuity of Bombay's housewife and Irani.

The Government of Bombay have decided to prohibit the use of milk or cream in the preparation of icecream. The measure is intended to relieve the pressure on the supply of milk.

This decision was announced at the meeting of the Food Advisory Council held here yesterday, by Mr. H. F. Knight, Adviser to the Governor of Bombay.

Mr. Knight, who presided over the meeting, reviewed the food position in the province generally and in Bombay City in particular in the light of supplies likely to be available under the revised procurement scheme communicated by the Government of India.

The Council accepted the Standing Committee's recommendations that no reduction should be made in the ration for Bombay City and Bombay Suburban District at present.

On consideration of the facts placed before it, the Council recorded its opinion that it would be impossible to reduce the ration in Bombay City without the most serious labour and other troubles, and recommended that the Government of India should be urged most strongly to increase the supplies for Bombay, either from surplus provinces, or, failing that, by importation of foodgrains from abroad.

The Council's recommendation that there should be no change in the August ration for Bombay and Bombay Suburban District has been accepted by the Government.

The next meeting of the Council was fixed for August 26.—A. P.

INDIA'S 'IZZAT' AT STAKE!

Assembly Demands Speedy Action Against Union Govt.

NEW DELHI, July 30.

Plea for a common non-European front, recall of High Commissioner and termination of trade agreement with South Africa are some of the measures advocated by various members in the course of the Assembly debate on Friday on Mr. Khare's motion for consideration of his bill to amend the Reciprocity Act.

The High Commissioner is a mere post-office representing Indian Government instead of the Indian community and he must be recalled, said Sir Raza Ali, a former Agent-General in South Africa. "War or no war, we want action at once, action to uphold the dignity and honour of Indians" demanded Nawabzada Liaquat Ali Khan, Deputy Leader of the Muslim League Party.

RECIPROCITY ACT AMENDING BILL

Dr. N. B. Khare initiated the discussion on the South African "pegging legislation" in the assembly today.

After tracing the history of Indo-South African relations, Dr. Khare said that from the earliest days of Indian immigration into Natal, the White population of South Africa had been guided by no other motive but "gross self-interest." "When times were bad, they did not hesitate to implore India to help them and were ready to make any promises to get Indian labour they so sorely needed. But when time improved, they were eager to repudiate their promises and insult the very people who had come to their assistance. By passes, licenses, registration, taxes, tests and reservations regarding property and trading and by denying the elementary right of the franchise to people born and bred in their country, the White Governments in South Africa have done their utmost to humiliate and hedge in their Indian population. To this has been added social and public indignity of many kinds."

BRITAIN'S MORAL RESPONSIBILITY

Dr. Khare proceeded:—"At a time when Indian troops have given their lives in countless gallant actions in the same cause for which South Africa is fighting, the last indignity is imposed upon the Indian people by the latest "pegging" legislation in South Africa." The crux of the situation," he declared "is that South Africa prevails because she is a dominion and Indians there have to suffer because India is a dependency. Under the circumstances, the moral responsibility of Britain which is the trustee of India is very great. She cannot ignore that she owes a duty just as great to the dusky millions of India and the quarter million in South Africa as she owes to the whole people of her own race in any territory in the British Commonwealth of Nations. The constitutional drawback from which India suffers does not detract from the inherent justice of the case of Indians in South Africa and some means must be found for maintaining the dignity and prestige of India and of the Government of India, even in war time.

"PEOPLE AND GOVERNMENT ARE ONE"

Fortunately in this matter, the people of India and the Government of India are at one and the Government of India have already publicly characterised the recent legislation as repugnant, unnecessary and inopportune. Had India been independent, she would have considered this a 'causus belli' against South Africa. But we may not think lightly of breaking away from the British Commonwealth of Nations because the ideal of co-operative interdependence on a footing of equality is better than the ideal of isolated independence. There may be also a forlorn hope of representations yielding valuable results after the election fever in South Africa has cooled down. But, representation unbacked by any action is valueless. As for action, an amended reciprocity act is already before the House for consideration and the possibility of applying other feasible and proper measures is being carefully examined."

Sir Henry Richardson, Leader of the European Group, supported the Government of India's Declaration that the Union Government's Legislation giving statutory recognition to racial discriminatory policy, was repugnant, unnecessary and inopportune. In any case, since the High Commissioner was returning to India in September, it would be prudent to defer any retaliatory action under the reciprocity act or otherwise.

RAZA ALI ON CHANGE IN GOVT. OF INDIA'S POLICY

Suggesting trade retaliation, enforcement of Reciprocity Act against Union nationals in India and the recall of the Indian High Commissioner from South Africa, Sir Raza Ali, India's former Agent-General in South Africa, said that a change seemed to have come over the policy of the Government of India since 1941, as regards the question of Indians overseas. This policy has ceased to be purposeful, resolute and vigorous. He referred to the Burma agreement and the Indo-Ceylon negotiations in both of which he said India Government did not properly assert itself.

MERE POST OFFICE

In South Africa, he said, India used to have an Agent-General, who used to be the leader of the Indian community in that Dominion and who used to help them in various ways, but in 1941, the Government of India "glorified" that office into a Hi Commissioner, but he could no longer represent the Indian community, but only represented the Government of India. At present he was a mere post office. The old bureaucratic Government of India had never allowed the Union Government to do what the present supposedly democratic Government had acquiesced in.

RECALL HIGH COMMISSIONER

Sir Raza Ali maintained that it was a lame excuse to say that Indians were penetrating extensively into predominantly European areas. The Government of India, he said, had got to do something and he suggested that immediate sanctions should be imposed to prevent export of foodgrain and gunny-bags from India and refused import of wattel bark and paints, etc., from South Africa. He also urged on the Government to impose restrictions on the South African Nationals in this country, within the next two months and to recall the Indian High Commissioner.

PLEA FOR COMMON NON-EUROPEAN FRONT

Dr. Banerji remarked that while previous viceroys had fully supported the Indian cause, Lord Linlithgow had made no pronouncement on the subject. Nor had the present Government of Great Britain lifted its little finger. He advocated rigorous application of the provisions of the Reciprocity Act, notice to terminate the Trade Agreement between India and South Africa, examination of articles of which we could prevent import and export, recall of both the High Commissioner and the Trade Commissioner and lastly a common non-European front.

WHAT JAPS DID

Mr. Hussainbhai Lalji said it was Indians who helped Great Britain to keep their hold on Natal and Durban and helped Britain to fight South Africans for far less humiliating and provocative reasons. South African Indians, Mr. Lalji declared, wanted and were prepared for the consequences of retaliatory action, and he asked why then should anyone in the House show concern about possible harm to them? The Japanese at one time said they would not buy wool and immediately South Africa said Japanese would be treated as equals. "We demand that if our soldiers are to fight for the honour of others, our soldiers must be at liberty fight for the honour of their own countrymen."

HOUSE MUST GIVE MANDATE TO GOVT.

Mr. N. M. Joshi did not like the Government of India to whine and say that Great Britain should act as the trustee. Cannot the Government of India compel the British Government to do what is right by Indians? He hoped that the House would give the Government a direct mandate to take all necessary steps to secure justice and safeguard the honour of the Indian community.

BETRAYAL OF TRUST

Mr. K. C. Neogy said he understood the Indians Overseas' Member to say that the last protest to the Union Government was that the Pegging Bill might be passed, but its application should be left to the Governor-General of the Union. If that was so, it was a betrayal on the part of the Government of India of the trust reposed in them and he strongly condemned it, as the constitutional position of the Governor-General in South Africa was different from that in India.

Mr. Neogy said, India did not want the retention of the High Commissioner in the Union. He had been given a higher title, but otherwise had been made absolutely impotent. Concluding Mr. Neogy supported the recommendation made by Sir Raza Ali and Dr. Bannerji.

PLEA FOR COMPLETE TRADE BOYCOTT

Mr. Govind Deshmukh said that Government would be very wrong in thinking that the problem could be solved on the basis of the Cape Town Agreement, or even in believing that it subsisted, specially when the Union Government had flouted it in such fashion. It was no more than a scrap of paper.

As regards the Reciprocity Act, he deprecated the description given to it by some members that it was a mere gesture of resentment. It was a weapon, he asserted and it should be enforced against Union Nationals, however, small their number might be, so that they might feel the pinch. There should be no delay in making rules. He also supported the application of complete trade boycott with South Africa.

ACTION AT ONCE

Nawabzada Liaquatali Khan, Deputy Leader of the Muslim League Party endorsed the remarks of Sir Frederick James that it was a sad day for the British Empire. He would not call it a Commonwealth, so long as India was not placed on a footing of equality with other dominions and Great Britain. At present it was merely a corporation of exploiters."

The position to-day was that Indians were regarded fit enough to shed their blood on the battlefield, but were not fit enough to breathe the same air with the White people of South Africa. He asserted that the war could not be made an excuse for delaying any action. For the war itself was being fought for preserving the honour, liberty and self-respect of humanity." War or no war, we want action at once; action to uphold the dignity and honour of Indians wherever they may be."

Dr. Khare winding up the debate announced that he had called a meeting of the Standing Emigration Committee for August 7 when he hoped to place his proposals for its consideration.

The Assembly passed the motion with Mr. G. V. Deshmukh's amendment and adjourned till 2-30 p.m. on Monday.

THE MOTION

The motion in its final form reads:

"The position arising out of the recent "Pegging Legislation" in South Africa be taken into consideration with a view to enforce the Reciprocity Act and adopt measures to redress the grievances of Indians in South Africa.

The Viceroy will address the joint session of both the Houses at 11 a.m. on Monday, August 2.—A. P.

No Asylum To War Criminals

Roosevelt Warns Neutral Countries

WASHINGTON, July 30.

President Roosevelt at his Press Conference to-day warned neutral countries against giving asylum to war criminals.

President Roosevelt added, it did not matter with whom the Allies dealt in Italy so long as they were not members of the Fascist Government. The primary object was to end armed opposition and avoid anarchy.

Asked whether he considered Marshal Badoglio a Fascist, President Roosevelt declined to discuss personalities. He expressed his willingness to treat for peace when the time came with a king, prime minister or even a mayor.

President Roosevelt in a formal statement said, "On August 21, 1942, I issued a statement to the Press in which after referring to the crimes against innocent people committed by the Axis Powers, I stated: The United Nations are going to win this war. When victory has been achieved, it is the purpose of the Government of the United States, as I know is the purpose of each of the United Nations, to make the appropriate use of the information and evidence in respect to the barbaric crimes of the invaders in Europe and in Asia.

"INCONSISTENT"

There are now rumours that Mussolini and members of his Fascist gang may attempt to take refuge in neutral territory. One day Hitler and his gang and Tojo and his gang will be trying to escape from their countries. I find it difficult to believe that any neutral country would give asylum to, or extend protection to any of them. I can only say that the Government of the United States would regard the action by a neutral Government in affording asylum to Axis leaders or their tools as inconsistent with the principles for which the United Nations are fighting and that the United States Government hopes that no neutral Government will permit its territory to be used as a place of refuge or otherwise assist such persons in any effort to escape their just desert."

BRITISH GOVT. WELCOMES IT

LONDON, July 30: It was officially stated in London to-day that the whole question of the possibility of Mussolini and others of his kind seeking asylum in neutral countries had already been raised by the British Government with both the United States and the Soviet Governments. The views of all the three Governments were found to be in accord, it added. The British Government warmly welcomed President Roosevelt's statement on this subject and associated itself with it.

To give necessary sanction to the Beggars' Scheme, inaugurated by the Government of Bengal, His Excellency the Governor has promulgated a new ordinance, called the Bengal Vagrancy Ordinance.

The Ordinance, the text of which is published in a Gazette Extraordinary, provides for the police to arrest any person who appears to be a vagrant and to produce him (or her, as the case may be) before a Magistrate, specially empowered in this behalf to make a summary enquiry on the spot. If the Magistrate is satisfied that such person is a Vagrant he will record a declaration to that effect and order him to be sent to a receiving centre, where the Vagrant will be medically examined and classified before being sent on to the appropriate Vagrants home.—A. Free Kitchens For Calcutta

CALCUTTA, July 30.

A scheme to supply 55,000 people (members of poor middle class families) with cheap food grains for a period of four months and start about a dozen free kitchens in and around Calcutta to serve 32,000 destitute people daily is shortly to be inaugurated. This was announced by Dr. Shyama Prasad Mookerjee addressing a students' meeting today, Mr. A. K. Fazlul Huq, ex-Premier, presiding.—A. P.

No Peace Overtures From Italy Yet

British Ministers Summoned From Beds For Emergency Cabinet Meeting

LONDON, July 30.

It is confirmed that the Cabinet met early this morning. This special meeting was held at 1-30 a.m. and some ministers were called from their beds to attend. It is understood that no peace overtures have yet come from the Badoglio Government.

Mr. Eden stated in reply to a question in the Commons to-day that yesterday's statement by Gen. Eisenhower regarding Italy had the approval of the British Government. When asked, if he would bear in mind that the majority of public opinion backed the Government in saying that there should be unconditional surrender—no conditions at all—Mr. Eden said that the Government's position was precisely as defined by the Prime Minister.

"No terms whatever have been offered", he replied to another question on this subject.

BADOGLIO PLAYS FOR TIME?

Mr. Anthony Eden told the Commons to-day that the War Cabinet had unanimously decided against having a war debate before the summer recess.

The meeting of the Ministers which decided not to hold a Parliamentary debate on the war situation was held during the evening. The statement by the United States Acting War Secretary Mr. Robert Patterson that the conquest of Sicily should be completed in "the matter of days" adds to the urgency of Italy's political crisis.

There is ample evidence that Marshal Badoglio is not putting all his cards on the table, and is determined not to repeat Marshal Petain's mistake of calling off hostilities before receiving armistice terms, thus depriving himself of bargaining power. Marshal Badoglio must play his cards skilfully to safeguard his Italian troops and workers in German occupied Europe and ensure the withdrawal or isolation of the German troops in Italy—and at the same time cope with the rising temper of his countrymen.—Reuter.

RIOTS IN ITALIAN CITIES?

LONDON, July 30.

A Berne dispatch from the Italian Frontier states that Italian troops have revolted in Milan and are refusing to fire upon thousands of demonstrating compatriots shouting demands for peace.

The German Overseas Radio says: "Reports affirm that the general strike in Milan is not yet over. Demonstrations, mainly by Communist elements, directed partly against the King and Marshal Badoglio, continue. According to the latest reports, the workers of big Milan factories form the backbone of the anti-Monarchist and Communist movement".

The German Overseas News Agency in a dispatch from the Italo Swiss frontier this afternoon (Friday) said there have been clashes in Genoa. A large part of port workers have left their work. Communist processions have taken place. In Milan, military patrols are continually being attacked.

RAID ALERT TO DISPERSE CROWDS

Reuter's special correspondent on the Italian frontier cables:—The trouble between demonstrators and troops in Milan yesterday is reported at times to have become so threatening that the authorities ordered air-raid sirens to be sounded to send the public into shelters

Travellers from Italy say that the Italian people hope the Government will soon sign an "honourable" armistice.

Denials issued in Rome and London have not convinced Italians that negotiations are not taking place with the Allies.

Reuter's special correspondent at the Italo-Swiss frontier town of Chiasso cables:—

Most Italians are convinced that passive neutrality is not feasible and a vast majority of them are prepared to back the Allies. This is the impression I have gathered after a checkup of reports brought by travellers from many parts of Italy. Neutral businessmen told me.

"Italy will be fighting against the Germans within a month if the Allies play their cards well and regard Italian assistance as an asset."

FIGHTING IN MILAN

A traveller from Milan reports sporadic fighting in some quarters of that city. The police have cut off the approaches to these quarters. Conditions otherwise are nearing normal.

The German Overseas News Agency reports that the bulk of the Fascist leaders and all members of the Fascist Grand Council except one have been arrested.

The one exception among the members of the Fascist Council was not named, but was described by the German message as "a particularly radical Fascist".

OFFICIAL ITALIAN VERSION

The Official Italian Agency said to-day: "It is clear that Mussolini has not fallen under the concentrated fire of the enemy's propaganda or under the fire, more murderous, of military events. The causes that have provoked the downfall of Fascism are strictly Italian, and cannot be discussed except by the Italians".

The Italian News Agency said this afternoon "Throughout Italy, the situation has rapidly returned to normal. Perfect calm reigns everywhere. In big cities, the people are getting on imposed by the authorities for the maintenance of order. Rome, Turin, Milan, Genoa, Bologna and Florence are quiet. Houses are still decorated. All factories are working at full pressure. All shops and markets are open. At Naples, Foggia and Bari and in all the Southern provinces now in the front line, the population has proved its patriotism and shown admirable discipline."

The Danish Radio came back on the air after a break of nearly one hour.—Reuter.

ITALIANS CONSIDER PEACE TERMS

LONDON, July 30.

The Rome radio to-night said the Italians are now considering "with great understanding" the Allied peace conditions."

"The whole Italian people is aware of the seriousness of the dilemma", it added, "The Italian people and Marshal Badoglio's Government are faced with a frightful reality which has the near and far future of Italy at stake."—Reuter.

HITLER'S DEMAND ON HUNGARY

STOCKHOLM, July 30.

Allies Capture Agira And Nicosia

LONDON, July 30.

Allied Headquarters, North Africa: Nicosia, an important road junction, 12 miles north of Leonforte, Sicily, has been taken by troops of the American Seventh Army, it is announced.

Agira, the same distance east of the town has been taken by the Canadians.

CAIRO: A Middle East Air Communique to-day states: "R. A. F. "Wellingtons" attacked Axis shipping in the harbour at Alimnia island near Rhodes during Wednesday night. Smoke was seen rising from a merchant vessel after the attack. Yesterday "Beaufighters" attacked five Axis schooners near Paros island damaging all five.

Allied Headquarters, North Africa: To-day's communique says "patrolling continued on the front of the Eighth Army with successful small encounters. The Canadians advanced further against strong opposition. The line of the seventh army advanced in several places".

To-day's air communique said "On the night of July 28/29, our bombers attacked airfields at Monte Corvino and Capo di Chino. As the result of attacks on enemy shipping in the Tyrrhenean sea by torpedo carrying aircraft, a merchant ship was left in sinking condition and two naval vessels were left on nre.

Reuters Special Correspondent Cables from Algiers that Viterbo airfield north of Rome was attacked by flying fortresses yesterday.

New "Violent" Allied attacks in Sicily are reported in to-day's Italian Communique. "In Sicily the defenders are being tried sorely and without respite by renewed violent enemy attacks "the communique says.

MOSCOW, July 30.

Reuter's special correspondent wires:

The battle for Orel has reached a new pitch of intensity as the Red Army's offensive swung into the 18th day to-day.

The Germans are making stubborn stands both north and south of Orel as well as desperately defending the approaches to the Orel-Briansk railway—Hitler's lifeline behind the Orel battle-front.

The "Pravda" said to-day that Soviet troops are "bleeding the Germans white" in the fierce battle for the "Key to Orel" a town 21 miles south-west of Castion City."—Reuter.

GOVERNOR TEACHES GITA TO PANDITS

DACCA, July 30.

Quoting Krishna's counsel to Arjuna on the battlefield, His Excellency Sir John Herbert, Governor of Bengal, told Pandits at the 66th convocation of the Eastern Bengal Saraswat Samaj to-day that many of the difficulties confronting us now were indirectly caused by lack of confidence and a resultant fear of the future. Let no man imagine that he can be detached from the war that is going on to-day. He cannot avoid action, whatever stand he may take—and yet, how many are there amongst those around us who are still being deluded by Arjuna's doubt and conflict?"

JAPS FEAR AIR RAIDS

Reuter's special correspondent with the Eighth Army on the Catania front wires: The joint American-Canadian squeeze against the northern flank of the Axis defenders has increased. The Axis are falling back again. The American force, which took Nicosia, occupied the town of Sperlinga on the way. American progress is expected to be slowed up somewhat because the 29th Panzer Grenadier Division appears to have taken over the whole of the extreme northern sector and because the Germans are thoroughly demolishing roads.—Reuter.

Assembly Congratulates Jinnah

'Holding Up Of Proceedings Outrageous', Says Jamnadas Mehta

NEW DELHI, July 30.

A resolution condemning the cowardly attack on Mr. Jinnah and congratulating him on his Providential escape was passed in the Central Assembly this morning

Mr. Jamnadas Mehta rejoiced that the assailant did not carry out his terrible work. But Mr. Mehta absolutely deprecated the attempt to involve the House in a motion of this kind.

He said: "As a member of the House Mr. Jinnah did not even show them the courtesy of attending its sittings. Besides, did the Moslem League condemn the massacres in Sukkur? (Pandit Maitra: Did they condemn the murder of Allah Bux?) (A voice from Moslem League benches: Allah Bux was not a member of this House).

Mr. Mehta continuing:—I know scores of Hindu leaders of the greatest eminence in Sukkur were foully murdered. The Moslem League had not a word to say.

I was assailed six months ago and yet not a mouse wept in this House. (A Voice: "You don't deserve it."

The President observed that the Chair could not stop Mr. Mehta from speaking on the political policy of the Moslem League Party but he hoped that other speakers would not go into matters which were really somewhat outside the motion though not irrelevant to it.

Sir Cowasji Jehangir considered it a privilege to associate himself with the motion. He deprecated most strongly the speech just made by Mr. Mehta. "I deprecate it in the interests of my country, in the interests of Mother India (loud cheers). That there should be an honourable member of this House who should put up such an exhibition is a disgrace to him and to the House." (More cheers).

(Mr. Jamnadas: You are a disgrace).

Leaders of all parties and Sir Sultan Ahmed, Leader of the House, associated themselves with the motion.

Sir Henry Richardson, Leader of the European Group, wholeheartedly supported the motion and joined in condemning the outrage which his group deplored.

Dr. P. N. Bannerji leader of the Nationalist Party, also associated himself with the motion. He did not think that the question of Mr. Jinnah being the leader of the Moslem League party was relevant on this occasion.

"If the Nawabzada had not moved that resolution I myself would have moved it." (Cheers).

Of late there was a growing tendency to use murder as a political weapon, and unless public opinion asserted itself against it there would be a great deal of difficulty in the future

NON-CONTROVERSAL RESOLUTION

Nawabzada Liaquat Ali moving the resolution said, Mr. Jinnah was one of the greatest sons of India and well-known all over the world. The news of the cowardly and mean attack made on him shocked every right-thinking man irrespective of caste, creed or colour. He had no doubt that every honourable member of the House would condemn the outrage. God in his mercy had saved Mr. Jinnah's life and he was sure every section of the House would join him in congratulating him on his providential escape. It was not possible adequately to express the Moslem League Party's feeling of relief joy and thankfulness to God for saving the life of their Leader.

Sir Sultan Ahmed, Leader of the House, wholeheartedly associated himself with the motion and said he was sure there was no one in this House nor any reasonable person outside who did not condemn the dastrdly and cowardly attack on Mr. Jinnah and would not join in congratulating him on his escape. This was an absolutely non controversial motion. It was always a matter of great concern and anxiety to the House when an incident like this with respect to a member of the House came to its notice and that he had been saved was a matter of congratulation not only to Mr. Jinnah but to the House —A. P.

Anti-Inflation Measures In Kathiawar

(From Our Correspondent.)

RAJKOT, July 30:—A meeting of the Ruler's of Kathiawar was convened at Rajkot on Tuesday, to consider the question of evolving a scheme to take anti-inflation measures, as proposed by the Government of India. The meeting, under the Presidentship of the Jamsaheb, deliberated at length and according to my information did not come to any sort of final conclusion. However I gather from informed circles that the States will oppose the idea of introducing the income-tax, but they may join in the scheme of Excess-profit, and Super-taxations. The amount of charging these taxes and other details are also likely to differ from those existing in British India. It is accepted on all sides that by maintaining 'status quo' in Nndia States, like that existing in British India, the trade, commerce and industry in the States will suffer badly.

Portuguese Economic Mission To Berlin Cancelled

LISBON: A Portuguese Economic Mission which was scheduled to have left for Berlin to negotiate a trade treaty between the two countries has been cancelled at the last moment. The reason, it is said, is due to the fact that Germany is unable to guarantee that the negotiation would be based on the principle of payment in gold in place of the barter system which in place is practising on the continent.—India Press Service.

'RADHASWAMI SATSANGH: 86th birth anniversary of Sadguru Baba Sawan Singhji Maharaj will be celebrated under the auspices of Radhaswami Satsang, Diamond Jubilee Mansion, Fergusson Road, Worli Naka, Bombay No. 18, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. to-morrow Sunday. TIME TO ACT

That the Government of India are now a little more earnest about vindicating the honour and rights of Indians in South Africa is evident from their undertaking an amendment of the Reciprocity Act to make it more effective in application. The Act was originally a non-official measure and was adopted by the Legislature during its last session. At that time Government did not express any doubts about the workability of the Act. Probably they were not keen on ever using it. They have since discovered that under the Act as it is the rights and privileges enjoyed in India by persons domiciled in a notified British possession cannot be cut down and there is no provision by which penalties for breach of directions can be imposed. Hence the new Bill, which, we hope, is more workable, and what is more is meant to be worked.

If ever there was a suitable occasion for action against the humiliating measures of the South African Government, it is now. We have been temporising with that Government far too long. A conciliatory attitude has been mistaken for weakness and a fresh humiliating measure is the result in the shape of the Pegging Act. That the Act is odious is admitted by all Indians and even the Government of India. That it should have been rushed through in indecent haste at the very time when Indians were shedding their blood for the very Whites who are tormenting them demonstrates that the Union Government is dead to all sense of fair play. Some people still talk of conciliation. Conciliation has been tried these many years. When the Union Government refused to comply with the request of the Government of India to be acquainted with the full provisions of the Pegging Act, it practically banged the door against further negotiation. Some others object to any action as it may cause a hitch in war effort. The objection is more valid against those who have imposed the Pegging Act on Indians.

Indians here as well as those in South Africa have unanimously demanded retaliatory action. Even the Government of India have realised its need. Otherwise there is no meaning in the official Bill before the House. The question is which retaliatory measures will be most effective, assuming, of course, that Government are really earnest about them. The present Bill is only a preparatory measure and a good gesture and we are confident Government will not stop there. A beginning by way of action can easily be made with the recall of the High Commissioner, a step approved by the present Commissioner himself. It may not directly affect the Union Government much but it will be something if it brings home to all concerned that this time the Government of India mean business. General reciprocity measures involve several questions of detail and cannot be considered here to-day. But restriction of exports to South Africa appears to be both feasible and effective. Cotton exports need not be restricted if that involves hardship to Indians in South Africa. But there can be no objection to the stopping of export of jute and its products, which, we, believe, form the bulk of the exports. Suspension of these exports will not be a loss to India as there is a huge unlimited demand for this commodity both in India and abroad. If the idea is workable, as we think it is, Government must be quick about it. Swami Bhawani Dayal and Mr. Mohamed Ahmad Jadwat, representatives of the South African Indian Congress in India, say that there is a move of the South African Government to purchase huge stocks of gunny bags in Calcutta to forestall contemplated action. They accordingly suggest that "the only way to bring reason to the Union Government is to enforce trade sanctions, especially to stop the export of gunny bags" and that "this will completely paralyse the agricultural and manufacturing industries in the Union." The suggestion deserves to be seriously considered by Government. Dr. Khare, who did well to convene some days ago a conference of leaders specially interested in this subject, should lose no time in carrying out its recommendations. The debate in the Indian Legislature Assembly on Friday should also spur him to action.

Roosevelt And China

Dealing with the war against Japan, President Roosevelt pointed out how the initiative has been wrested from the Japanese from the Aleutians to the Solomons and New Guinea and how the war of attrition was hurting the Japs and going to hurt still more. He even offered them the "helpful suggestion" that they should better revise their policy of trying to hold on to their outposts. The President was, of course, not moved by sympathy for the Japs but was only setting forth the position in a more effective form. But we wish he had expressed himself more concerned about his obligations to China than he did. "We are", he said, "delivering planes and vital war supplies for the heroic armies of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and we must do more at all costs." The assurance cannot enthuse the Chinese and their friends for the sufficient reason that they have already had more than enough of verbal pledges backed by miserable performance. The point is that what is being done for China is much less than what must be done. And it can be done, too. A very considerable—and not just the President's "more"—increase in the supply of vital material is possible here and now. Transport planes are available in adequate quantity for the purpose. And we insist that China deserves them more than Britain and the Middle East. For they are the only means whereby China can receive supplies and secondly Chinese defence is no less important than the offensive in Europe.

Gandhiji's Letters

It is clear from Mr. Amery's replies to questions in the Commons that several letters have passed between Gandhiji and the Government of India and the fact that Mr. Amery is not prepared to disclose even their number suggests that they are many and part of a serious controversy. We can quite understand his reluctance to publish them. The last published letters did not suit Government's plan to misrepresent and discredit Congress. So both in India and Britain their publication was delayed as long as possible and they were not included in Government's pamphlet on Congress responsibility. But their main contents cannot be indefinitely suppressed by the British Empire. And when they are published the world will better understand the Empire, which, not content with jailing a man like Gandhi without a trial gags him and virtually buries him alive.

FRANKLY SPEAKING

Rome's Bargaining

The war, so far as Italy is concerned, is going through an interesting stage of long range wireless exchanges between Anglo-American spokesmen on the one side and the official Rome Radio on the other. These exchanges almost clearly suggest that Italy is not keen on continuing the war but that she objects to the terms offered by America and Britain We do not see how Italy's opponents can modify the "unconditional surrender" demand—although suspicions are increasing rather than diminishing that America and Britain desire to treat Italy generously as regards her "Empire" at the expense, of course, of the unfortunate peoples of Africa. They will have to stick to it.

End Inevitable

And, eventually, the Italians must, in their own interests, submit. The Badoglio administration knows that even if it succeeds in rallying the Italians now, the war is lost. Allied pressure can only go on increasing and, as we have seen, for the Axis there is no hope for the future as there was for Britain in 1940. At best Italy can only postpone the day of surrender by weeks or months. But the day cannot be averted. It can be brought nearer by the enforcement of Mr. Churchill's threat The process, has, perhaps, already begun. For, according to the latest reports, the Allied forces have now launched upon the final phase of the battle in Sicily.

South African Elections

The success of General Smuts at the South African General Elections was a foregone conclusion. And especially so after he had proved that he was no less a champion of white supremacy than any extreme Nationalist who at least has the brutal decency not to mouth hypocritical sentiments regarding human brotherhood, democracy and the rest of it. But the magnitude of his success, which trebled his majority, was not altogether expected. It is, of course, due partly to the war mentality which would naturally infuse every community the members of which are fighting a war, however, controversial it may have been originally. It is also partly due to the turn in the tide of war which has discredited the South African Nazis and their friends. General Smuts has scored a great victory not only for his own party but also for the cause of Mr. Churchill's "British Commonwealth and the Empire." So far, however, as we Indians are concerned we are moved neither to pleasure nor to regret by it. General Smuts and his supporters are no better than their opponents in their deliberately cynical colour policy.

Discrimination In I. M. S.

There are persistent complaints that there is discrimination against Indians in the Indian Medical Service but the replies to questions on this subject in the Central Assembly are evasive. One question was whether senior Indians in I. M. S. have been superseded by junior European officers for commands and special jobs and if so what are the reasons therefor and how many are such supersessions. And the reply was: "Two hundred and twenty European officers have been granted acting promotion during the present emergency as against 234 Indian I. M. S. officers. Information regarding the reasons for supersession in each individual case is not readily available." The reply admits instances of supersession but does not state how many of the promotions were of this type. However, cases of supersession have been admitted and have not been justified or explained. It is not surprising, therefore, to learn that there is much heart-burning among Indians in general in the Service.

International Football

INDIANS TO MEET EUROPEANS ON AUGUST 14

BY FREE LANCE

The International Football Match between Indians and Europeans which was inaugurated at the Cooperage last year and which turned out to be a grand success, will be played again this year. The W.I.F.A. Committee has fixed it for August 14. The proceeds will go to the Navy's Sheepskin Jackets Fund. Would you believe there are some British people in Bombay who would like to colour this engagement with a communal brush? If a contest between Hindus and Muslims is communal they say, why not the battle between Europeans and Indians? If we accept their ground, then a match between Britain and America could be labelled communal! Similarly a fight between Englishmen and Welshmen would also be communal! Nearer home, a tie between Maharashtra and Gujarat would be communal because Marathis and Gujaratis would be engaged in it!

AESURD AND RIDICULOUS

Nothing could be more absurd and ridiculous than this. If this line of argument is accepted then there could be no international and inter-provincial matches. Every engagement of this nature would be communal. But that is not the real meaning of the term 'communal' as it is applied to our objectionable festivals. It is used in the sense religious. The teams participating in the Pentangular bear a religious complexion. They represent their communities on the basis of their religions. That surely is very much different from a side representing a nation or a province. The Europeans are apt to condemn the Hindus and the Muslims for fighting between themselves on political battlefields. But they take no end of trouble to encourage such fights on the sporting field. According to them, one is bad form and the other is friendly!

RELIGION IN PLAY

I should like to see matches arranged between Catholics and Protestants. Methodists and Non-Conformists and so on. Let there be a tournament on this basis. But I know my European friends would shudder at this very idea. They would rather arrange contests between England and Scotland, Ireland (or Eire) and Wales. To bring home the ridiculous nature of our Football Pentangular teams, may I call the White Christians, Anglo-Indians Brown Christians and Indian Christians dark or black Christians? This will expose their true colours in the headlines. I do not wish to labour this point any further. Suffice it to say that the motive behind the agitation against communal sport is that religion should not be made a play thing. It should be kept out of bounds from the field of sport, so that religious fanaticism may not have any hand in its clean and friendly running. What reasonable objection can there be to it?

CLASSIC FOOTBALL

Indians defeated the Europeans last year by two goals to nil. With proper selection the Indian side can be as strong as it was last season. And if the weather conditions are in their favour, there is every chance of their repeating their last year's performance. Of course most of the prominent Indian players can now play with boots on when ground conditions are adverse to bare-footed play. Still they cannot be as proficient and clever as in their natural style of play. I do not wish underrate the strength of the European team. Some of the first rate players of Britain, who are now in the various departments of the Forces, are stationed in Bombay at present. The recent exhibition match between the United Forces and Bombay gave us an idea of the elements the Indian combination will have to deal with. In any case some classic football is sure to be provided by this clash of International stalwarts.

Mohan Bagan Declared League Champions

CALCUTTA, July 30.

Mohan Bagan were declared league champions for 1943 to-day, with 39 points. East Bengal scored 37 points. This followed the decision of the Governing Body of the Indian Football Association to-day on the protest lodged by East Bengal against Customs for playing Findlay, who, it was contended, was not eligible to play.

It will be recalled that earlier the League sub-Committee of the I.F.A. had rejected East Bengal's protest.—A. P.

Gharries "Out Of Bounds" For All Services

KARACHI, July 29.

All 'Gharries' in Karachi have been declared "out of bounds" with effect from 3 p.m. Friday, July 30, to all servicemen, whether British or Indian army personnel, R.A.F. or U. S. forces. This decision has been taken by the Services authorities as a result of frequent assaults on men in uniform by victoria-drivers and excessive fares demanded by the latter.—A. P.

Abrogation Of Aug 8 Decision Is In Mahatma's Hands

Subbaroyan On Task Before Proposed Congressmen's Meeting

BOMBAY, July 30.

Dr. P. Subbaroyan has issued the following:—

Mr. Gopinath Srivastava and I during our stay in Bombay have been able to see quite a number of people and find out their reactions to Mr. Srivastava's suggestion of a meeting of those A. I. C. C. Members, who are outside the jail. As Mr. Srivastava made it clear, we know that it is not in our power to convene a meeting or fix a date or venue for the same.

All that we desire to do is to suggest that there should be an informal meeting of Congressmen, including A. I. C. C. Members, and if there is sufficient response to the move from different parts of our country, we shall then proceed to make arrangements for such meeting.

We want to make it perfectly clear lest there should be any misunderstanding suih a meeting will only bje to take stock of the present situation and restate the position of the Congress in view of Mahatmaji's published correspondence and to point out that individual Congressmen should not carry on in the name of Congress any activity not in consonance with the declared policy of the Congress.

We also feel that such a meeting should review the situation in the country in the light of past events and subsequent developments and take such steps as may be necessary to acquaint Mahatma Gandhi and other leaders under detention with its appreciation of the situation in the country at the present time.

IN MAHATMA'S HAND

Mr. Srivastava after consultations with me has agreed that this is not the time to consider the abrogation of the resolution of August 8 as both of us realise that this is a matter in the hands of Mahatma Gandhi and members of the Working Committee.

We feel that a meeting of the members of the A.I.C.C. and other Congressmen will help to devise a campaign for the release of Mahatma Gandhi and other leaders to reopen negotiations for the formation of National Government at the Centre composed of representatives of the people which alone can solve the many problems facing the people in the matter of food and of the necessities of life.

MINISTRY MOVES

We know there are talks of Coalition Ministries in Provinces and complete Indianisation of the Governor-General's Executive Council. We wish to point out that such Indianisation will only get people who have no representative capacity and who will have to depend upon bureaucracy and Governors of Provinces to keep themselves entrenched in power and thus impede a correct and early solution of the deadlock.

We further feel that the meeting should also concentrate to solve the food crisis according to the self-sufficiency programme adopted by the A.I.C.C. at Allahabad in April, 1942.

Dr. Subbaroyan left today for Poona, where he will halt till August 4.—A. P.

Warning To Nationalists M.L.A's. Against Ministry-Moves

BOMBAY, July 30.

Mr. K. M. Munshi (Bombay), Dr. P. Subbaroyan (Madras), Mr. V. R. Kalappa (C.P.) and Mr. Gopinath Srivastava (U.P.) have issued the following:—

"Definite moves appear to be set afoot in the provinces where Sec. 93 is made applicable, to set up ministries with the help of minority parties. We understand that approach is also being made to Congress and other nationalist members of the legislatures in such provinces.

Without a National Government at the Centre they will not be able to alleviate the distress of the people in any appreciable measure or organise them. Depending upon the goodwill of the bureaucracy, as such ministries are bound to be, they will begin and end as convenient devices to camouflage, particularly public opinion outside the country".

They appeal to nationalist legislators not to associate themselves with any move for setting up ministries of this nature, particularly when the Government of India has set its face against the formation of any National Government at the Centre and keeps a large number of Congress legislators in prison even without the semblance of a judicial trial —U. P.

Sind Congressmen Loyal To Mahatma

KARACHI, July 30.

Complete confidence in the leadership of Mahatma Gandhi was expressed at a meeting of Sind Congressmen The meeting dissociated itself with the move to summon a meeting of the A. I. C. C. with a view to reconsidering the present political situation.

AMERY ON MUSLIM LEAGUE & MINISTRIES

WESTMINSTER, July 29.

The Muslim League and Ministries was the subject and a question in the House of Commons on Thursday when Mr. Dobbie (Labour) asked which of the Provincial Governments represented coalition of parties or groups, how many were formed exclusively by Muslim League members or under its leadership; what proportion of these ministers were recent adherents of the Muslim League or other political groups whom they claimed to represent and how many had met the Assembly concerned and sought or received any expression of confidence.

Mr. Amery's reply was: "All the Ministries in the six Provinces wherein normal constitution is functioning are based on coalitions of parties and interests. Five of them are headed by Ministers who belong to the Muslim League. Except in Sind, where two Ministers joined the League last autumn, I am not aware that any of the Muslim Ministers have only recently joined the League. I have no information that vote of confidence has been withheld from any of these Ministries. The recently formed Ministry in the North-West Frontier Province has yet to meet the legislature.—Reuter.

SAVARKAR TURNS DOWN MAHESHWAR DAYAL'S REQUISITION

BOMBAY, July 30.

The requisition sent by Raja Maheshwar Dayal to Mr. V. D. Savarkar, President of the All-India Hindu Mahasabha requesting him to call a meeting of the All-India executive of the Hindu Mahasabha has been rejected on constitutional and some other grounds.

In pursuance of the resolution passed by the Working Committee of the All-India Hindu Mahasabha held on May 9 last at Delhi, by which the President was empowered to take such disciplinary step as he thought proper for some objectionable speeches and actions on the part of Raja Maheshwar Dayal, the President has decided that the resolution itself constitutes a sufficient warning and consequently no further step need be taken.—A. DR. KULKARNI SERVED WITH FRESH NOTICE

(From Our Correspondent)

JUBBULPORE, July 28.

Doctor S. S. Kulkarni, a prominent Congress Leader of Basim, in the Buldana district, Berar), who had been a security prisoner since August last, and was recently released from the Central Jail, Jubbulpore, has been served with fresh notices under rule 26 D.I.R., by the District Magistrates of Buldana and Akola, asking him not to organise, address or take part in meetings, public or private or lead or take part in processions within the limits of the district.

It is understood that similar notices have been served on the workers in other districts also as precautionary measures to prevent the recrudescence of the disturbances of political nature.

Acquitted But Re-arrested

BELGAUM, July 29: Mr. P. M. Lad, District and Sessions Judge, Belgaum, to-day acquitted Rayangouda Patil of Tillur and Rudragouda Patil of Choki, who were charged under D. I. R. 26 (Section 5 B) with not having surrendered to the police following the Belgaum District Magistrate's order to them to do so.

It was argued on behalf of the accused that the District Magistrate had not been empowered by the Provincial Government to issue such an order, that mere publication of the order in Government Gazette did not amount to a sufficient notice, and lastly that the order had neither been published in the villages nor stuck on the houses of the accused.

The accused were discharged but subsequently re-arrested under D. I. R. —A. P.

DEMOCRACY AND ISLAM

By Sir A. M. K. DEHLAVI

Democracy has loomed large since the outbreak of the war, both in the West and in the East and, particularly, in India.

The claim of the Muslim League, that the parliamentary system of government on the democratic rule of the majority arrived at by the counting of heads is unsuited to the conditions and genius of the people of India, has been violently assailed by advocates of certain political parties, which are determined, having their own interests, ends and pursuits to satisfy, to force democracy on India. Some of them, in their attempt to question this Muslim statement, have gone so far as to assert that Islam has advocated and adhered to the principles of democracy for the last thirteen hundred years. Little knowledge is dangerous applied to any sphere of thought. Evidently to some minds the difference, between a democratic outlook on life and a democratic parliamentary system of Government, is not easily conceivable. The question, however, is worth investigation and clarification

Democracy takes its root from the Greek word "Demos", meaning the people. But strange to say, in Greece itself it did not meet with even a scant welcome. This treacherous word has changed its significance and character throughout the ages. In Aristotle's vocabulary it did not have a happy place. In his division of states into the good and the bad, Democracy was a form of government ruled by the untutored and non-philosophical sections of the citizens in a state. This applied to a State where every citizen, as opposed to slaves, was a member of parliament and took a prominent part in every aspect of the State's activities. When however, the principle of representation, that is one man speaking for many, and the doubtful excuse of the rule of majority were evolved this dubious word Democracy, with all its drawbacks to cope with all aspects of a peaceful and peace-inspiring rule assumed a new meaning. It became the advocate of the rights of the poor against the rich, the disinherited against the inherited, it reached its climax in Rousseau's theory of Social Contract, and in the Declaration of the Rights of Man. The later philosophers of Europe envisaged human society in a state of war and on a basis of conflict between the 'haves' and the 'have-nots' the landlord and the tenant, the factory owner and the worker and generally betwen Capital and Labour

* * *

Viewed in this perspective, the democratic ideals of Islam are, indeed, different. Islam never divided Society into any classifications, economic or otherwise, and democracy, as understood and practised to-day is totally alien to the thought and conceptions of Islam. The rich and the penniless are equal in the eyes of the 'Shariat,' which is not canonical law but the law of Islam. He who is pious is deserving of honour and leadership. The whole outlook is, thus, basically different. The adjective "democratic", applied to Islam is of non-Muslim parentage. Muslims do not believe in, nay deride, democracy as conceived by Christians and non-Muslims. They never believed in the theory of numbers and its crushing burden. Brotherhood has all along been, and is the Muslim conception of human society in its daily intercourse and dealings among men. All Muslims are brothers under the Qur'anic Law, though those outside the pale of Islam are to be treated with forbearance and tolerance by the same Law Administration and statecraft were left, with confidence, in the hands of elders and the pious men, like the Prophet and his Companions, who were trusted as benevolent dictators. They could however, be called up to account before the brotherhood if they deviated in the slightest manner from the Law of God as laid down in the Qur'an and the Traditions. The ideal before the Muslims, therefore is not democracy as understood by Aristotle or by the 18th and 19th Century philosophers of Europe. Islam has rigidly maintained the ideal of what may be termed human democracy.

Criminal Cowardice

God is gracious. Mr. Jinnah's life is saved. Such an attack is criminal cowardice. It is un-Indian, un-Islamic, and unhuman. All India will condemn it with one voice Let the bureaucrats realize, how the people's tempo is drifting more and more to acts of violence, when the real preservers of peace and order are behind prison bars! Reflect, Sir Reginald Maxwell!

Price Of Salt

Let me bring to the notice of your readers the apparent injustice meted out to the poor Bengalees at the hands of the Kathiawar salt-manufacturers We here depend solely upon the imported salt from Kathiawar. But while the Kathiawar factories sell the salt to the people of their states at two annas per maund, for exporting to Bengal they charge an exhorbitant price of one rupee four annas per maund. To say the least this is a very unfair means to extract money from the poor people of Bengal considering the fact that even the railways have reduced substantially the freight charges for sending salt from Kathiawar to Bengal, it is high time that the manufacturers too show a sympathetic attitude by reducing considerably the price of salt meant for export to Bengal; otherwise the people of Bengal themselves may take up the question and request the Government to bring pressure on the manufacturers

"Hindustani Academy"

In the issue of the 17th July, you have published a report that the Hindustani Academy, U.P. Allahabad, have announced to award prizes for books etc., on Hindi literature. May I ask whether the Academy intends to offer similar prizes for Urdu literature also. Does the Academy stands for the support and propagation of Hindi only? Will those in charge of the Academy clarify their position? I am really surprised, for all these years we were often assured that Hindustani is a spoken language only and that as regards script it means and includes both Hindu and Urdu styles of writing. In fact it was repeatedly given out that Hindustani is a combination of words adopted from Hindi and Urdu languages, and that it can be written through both scripts. Why then favour Hindi only? Yours, etc.,

Mr. Amery has informed Parliament that "in view of the circumstances of Mr. Gandhi's arrest, the Government of India have decided that he should not be afforded any opportunity of expressing or conveying his views to the public either in India or this country."

What the British public and Parliament should do about this contemptuous snub to them is an affair between them, their Government in Britain and their Government's Government in India.

But we personally appreciate the wisdom of the Government of India and Mr. Amery in blanketting not only Mahatma but the entire world. It proves that they are endowed with a rich and necessary measure of an intelligent instinct of self-protection.

For, suppose the Mahatma's views and feelings had been made known in Britain and America.....

Of one thing there is certainly no doubt Indian troops are very much more highly thought of than Mudaliar's, Bajpai's etc. And not only in Britain and America but in India, too.

Khurshid and Mubarak in 'Tansen' at Opera House.

Two Good New Releases

'Najma' At Minerva: 'Tansen' At Opera House

BY T. V. P.

Ranjit's 'Tansen' was released yesterday. The reception given by the public is something unusual. The concensus of critical opinion is that Ranjit have produced a really good film. They have made numerous pictures so far, but this one really impressed everybody who saw it.

Saigal and Khurshid were costarred in 'Surdas' also by the same producers but the height of 'Tansen' was not reached. As it is quite proper 'Tansen' is predominantly musical but quite unusually one hears some finely interpreted ragas of Hindustani music on the Indian screen for the first time.

Akbar is played by Mubarak and he looks Akbar every inch. The picture is directed by Jayant Desai. Photography and audiography are quite satisfactory.

'NAJMA' AT MINERVA

Another very good release for the week is 'Najma' of Mehboob Productions at Minerva. Its premiere was held on Thursday night in the presence of a number of people connected with the film industry. Mehboob presents Muslim Society in U. P. and covers a number of details while the story progresses. The way Nawabs and Rajas spend their life, their empty pastimes like cockfights, kite-flying, chess-playing, their leisurely and luxurious relics of aristocratic grandeur of old have been vividly portrayed with effortless ease. Customs like the 'purdah' and marriages between cousins have been brought to notice without giving offence, but suggesting reform.

Ashok Kumar in 'Najma' at Minerva.

CULTURAL REALISM

It is a story of arranged marriages between two young couples, with the usual complications. There is no avowed or implied advocacy or otherwise of arranged marriages, but one thing is sought to be driven home. Once you are married you ought to be loyal to your spouse, in the interest of everybody concerned. That counsel of commonsense is definitely inculcated by means of this film. Veena as Najma has given an enviable performance. Sitara also plays her role with understanding and ability. Ashok Kumar is as good as he was expected to be. Yakub and Kumar live up to their reputations.

RECENT RELEASES

Among the recently released films 'Namaste' at West End, "Saheli" at Imperial 'Ladaike Bad' at Krishna, 'My Child' at Central 'Panghat' at Lamington, 'Mohabat' at Kamal and of course 'Basant' at Majestic and 'Kismet' at Roxy and 'Ishara' at Swastik, are maintaining their attractiveness. For those who missed 'Bhakta Kabir', there is an opportunity to see it at Chitra.

SOME COMING FILMS

Janak Pictures' 'Masterji' starring Shah Nawaz and Sardar Akhtar is booked for Edward, Minerva's 'Bhakta Raidas' will be shortly released at Krishna, Prakash's 'Ram Rajya', will be the next change at Super. CITY MARKETS

BOMBAY, Friday.

SHARES: The local Share Bazar was quietly steady to-day with operators mainly interested in Budla business. Budli differences did not disclose any change in the open interest and as usual Bombay Dyeings were quoted Rs. 11-4 against short sellers while other shares were being transferred at around existing quotations. The recent improvement in certain shares was mainly due to forced covering otherwise there seems to be no change in the general sentiment. Recently investors are taking more interest in Government Securities and Industrial shares do not show much buying urge.

Selling pressure is limited and the market is grinding around present levels with more of fobbing business and operators are satisfied to accept small profits whenever they accrue. This state indicates hesitant feeling and there is no disposition to increase risks. At times the market is making a show of a rise but realising sales appear on all moderate advances while declines attract short covering. The market opened very steady but there being moderate selling prices assumed sagging tendency. Tata Steel Dfds. Rs. 1,965, Ordinary Rs. 397 Bombay Dyeings Rs. 1,905, Century Rs. 748 and Kohinoors Rs. 775.

Later on there was selective buying and particularly Steel, Kohinoor and Simplex Shares faced well but Dyeings and Century Mill Shares remained quiet.

HARWOOD LEAGUE

W. I. A. A. Staff Lose Grip On Championship

The W.I.A.A. Staff, holders were most surprisingly held to a one-goal all draw by the B.E.S.T. in the Senior Harwood League on Friday. It was a thrilling battle in which Dayaram, the diminutive Tramway custodian covered himself with glory. The Champions combination was totally disorganised, Murugesh, the new-comer from Mysore, making matters worse by his selfish play. The B.E.S.T. players, most of whom were in boots, went all out to lower the colours of their formidable rivals. The first half going blank Raymond, inside-left put the B.E.S.T. by scoring from a melee, early in the second moiety. Soon after Thomas levelled up matters for W.I.A.A. But try as they would, the champion could not bring off the winner. Now their chances of retaining the title are slender.

BANGALORE, July 29.

Sir C P Ramaswamy Iyer, dewan of Travancore, it is learnt, has accepted the invitation to deliver the convocation address of the Mysore University in October next.

The Half-Column "By Dim"

Without Comment: "A White House spokesman said to-night that General Eisenhower's HONOURABLE TERMS are the same as President Roosevelt's UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER"—Reuter.

* * *

Also without comment: "Mr. B. N. Choudhury stated (in the Calcutta Corporation) that he had personal knowledge of many cases where people had been found in the streets in an almost dying condition. When he tried to remove one case to hospital, he was told that starvation cases, even when they were dying, were not admitted there."

Also without comment; Sir Sultan Ahmed said in the Central Assembly in reply to Sir Ziauddin Ahmed that the amount spent in 1942-43 on the work of the National War Front was Rs. 33 lacs.

The American President's speech gives us an idea of smart, slick propaganda of the polished kind, unknown in India. He says:

"Next time anyone says to you that this war is 'in the bag' and 'it is all over but the shouting' you should ask him these questions: 'Are you working full time on your job?' Are you growing all the food you can?' 'Are you buying your limit of war bonds?' 'Are you loyally and cheerfully co-operating with your Government in preventing inflation and profiteering and in making rationing work with fairness to all?' Because—if your answer is no—then the war is going to last a lot longer than you think."

* * *

Please note he doesn't ask: "Is your soil rich, is your wife beautiful?"

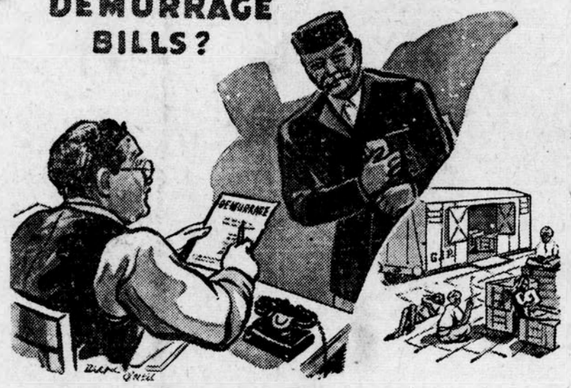
Do you ever query your DEMURRAGE BILLS?


IN War Time Demurrage represents a loss to you, a loss to the Railways and more important still a loss to the country's war effort.....
Heavy Demurrage Bills invariably mean that the wagons allotted for your goods are not being loaded and unloaded as promptly as they should be.....Do you ever inquire into the reason for this?....Are you sure that all such delays are unavoidable?.... Your forwarding and clearing staff or agents can help to minimise them by simple precautionary measures such as ascertaining the likely time of arrival of consignments or when wagons will be made available for loading and by arranging beforehand to clear the traffic immediately.....
